

The Anglo-Israel Archaeological Society

ANNUAL TRAVEL GRANTS 2022

A number of awards, including the Nicholas Slope Memorial Award, and the Sheila and Anthony Rabin Awards
each normally of £750 are offered competitively to UK students of archaeology and related subjects for work on an excavation in Israel

Application forms download and further information at: www.aias.org.uk.

For queries, email: secretary@aias.org.uk

Or write to: Sheila Ford, Administrator, Anglo-Israel Archaeological Society,
2nd Floor, Supreme House, 300 Regents Park Road, London N3 2JX

Applications and references must be received by Thursday 28 April 2022

The Anglo-Israel Archaeological Society was founded in 1961 to promote and disseminate investigation and understanding of all periods of Near Eastern Archaeology. It is a non-political charity that embraces the various cultures and religions of the region. To find out more about AIAS, visit our webpage: www.aias.org.uk or visit us on Facebook:

<http://www.facebook.com/Israel/Archaeology/London>